Their light will continue to shine in their children Simona Marquez, Verlanda Baca, Leroy Calles, Hope and husband Larry Baca, Vivian and husband, Richard Garcia who will all miss her dearly. In addition to her many loved ones, Lugarda is survived by her siblings, Ramon Baca, and Elena Aragon. Lugarda leaves behind a cherished legacy in the form of 15 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and a great-great grandchild. She was a matriarch of a sprawling family tree, each branch enriched by her love, wisdom, and nurturing presence. Her grandchildren filled her with joy from which she left them with a lasting impression that will forever resonate within their hearts and lives.

Though she may be gone from our sight, Lugarda's love, faith, and legacy of kindness will forever remain in our hearts. “ Grandma,
I'm going to miss you so much!💕💕 I will always remember the stories you've told us. You always make us laugh. We have shared such great memories with you and grandpa. We were so fortunate to have such fun and loving grandparents who were always there for us. I will miss that beautiful smile that lit up the room. You will never be forgotten. Grandpa has been waiting for the love of his life to join him again. Now you two will be together again.
I love you!

“ I will always look up to Grandma Calles for how she loved others. She never looked at our faults only the good. Every time I was over we were crying laughing it felt like. She empowers me everyday with the amount of strength she had, till the very end. I only hope to have the sharp mind that she had, even if she was talking in English and Spanish.

“ The loss is tremendous, but so is the love left behind. We are heartbroken from such a loss, but know you are by our side as our guardian angel. We know you are in heaven smiling at the beautiful life you have created. I am forever grateful for the wonderful family you have blessed me with. You will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers every day. We will miss you more than words can say. We love you.

“ Grandma Calles was always there to support me throughout the years. Even when she could hardly walk, she never failed to show up at the most important moments. She always had a story to tell about her long history on this earth. Never short of spectacular or entertaining. Giving wisdom in bits of English and Spanish every time I'd visit her on that dusty dirt road. She is an inspiration to live up to and even in her old years she was the brains of the family. She connected me with my heritage, a pinnacle to never forget where we come from with love and compassion. I will miss those tasty sweet rice moments, the sneaking through your pantry for a treat looking in the tin can box of cookies to only find sewing supplies. You will be dearly missed my sweet grandma. Thank you for your prayers and love. -Mariano

“ Who was Grandma Calles to me. A true Matriarch wielding her power with smiles and acceptance. She would speak to you in a way that would make you feel like you are the only one in the room. Half in Spanish and half in English, she loved the conversation. She loved with genuine unconditional love, forgiving you for your mistakes and cheering you on when you were succeeding. I had the opportunity to spend the last few days with her and it was my honor to have done so. I find comfort in knowing she is in a better place now with a new body and no longer in pain. She will be missed by not only me but so many that had the opportunity to know her and that smile.

“ *My luggie baby,
One of the hardest things I had to do was to whisper in your ear telling you that it's ok for you to rest and be with grandpa. Seeing you the last two weeks, all the pain and suffering you went through I knew you were tired and ready to be at peace and rest in heaven. I am going to miss you so very much, especially that big beautiful smile you always had on your face. You have blessed me with so many good memories that I will cherish forever. I love you grandma!*
