“ Grandma, how do I choose one memory when I have so many? You were our foundation, you were my rock; the person I could tell anything too. You would never judge, always listened and gave the soundest advice. When I decided to receive all my sacraments, you took that journey with me and never left my side. I remember our practice run before the Easter Vigil and Father Doug had us walk up the steps to the alter and you did something that only I heard but ignored until you started laughing so hard you were crying. Poor Father Doug had to keep stopping and repeating because the two of us had the giggles so bad and the harder we tried to keep them in the louder we got, thank God Father Doug was a patient man. I will miss your meatballs and spaghetti you made me for every birthday; it was my favorite! Grandma, you loved me since the day I was born, but I have loved you my entire life. I always say, “I love you to the moon and back!” Give Grandpa a kiss from me, tell him I love him and miss him. I can see the two of you dancing in each other’s arms, you are home and until we see each other again, “I love you to heaven and back!” Never goodbye, it's see you later!!!

“ My memories go back a lifetime as you were always there for me. As a small child you played jacks and colored with me. As a teenager I lived with you and you truly treated me as a little sister, always patient with my lazy ways. As a young wife you listened to all my stories and wisely counseled me and was always a wonderful example as mother, wife and friend. You instilled in me the value of family and how to create a pleasant home for all to return to. You taught me how to prepare wonderful traditional meals for all to look forward to and enjoy. As we continued through life you made all those trips to Chama with daddy and me and helped me make his vacation home more pleasant for him. I remember the time you stayed with me though my daddy's illnesses so I never felt overwhelmed. You just were quietly there - always.

Till we meet again - and we will, you will be remembered, loved, and missed.

*Your favorite niece,
Gloria*

To the Johnny and Maggie Otero Family:

Lo siento mucho por tu pérdida.

I want to share a memory with everyone. My family calls me Bobby and everyone else calls me Joe. It's kind of my business name. When Shanna introduced me to Grandma and Grampa Otero, She introduced me as Joe. As time went on and I became part of the Otero's family, Shanna would call me Bobby and Grampa Otero would say, "Bobby? Who is this Bobby?... That is JOE!" Grandma Otero would say, Daddy O, that is his name! It was a big on-going joke. I love and miss them both. I am mostly going to miss going by on Sunday for lunch and sitting around after we ate and talking to Grandma Otero.

All of our kids Donivan, Wayne, Derek, Brianna, Talia and Christian, Loved Grandma Otero deeply. To say she will be missed is an understatement for the heavy hearts we all share over losing her.

Sweet loving memories...
