“ My dear friend Margaret—how I will miss you. I first met you at the Veguita Trading Post—you were a newlywed & we were both new to Veguita. When your babies came—Sisto & Lupe—they were the most loved babies in Veguita. I used to be open late and you would come & spend time with me. Throughout the years, we spent much time laughing & sharing many stories. Thank you for all the times you sang mananitas to me on my birthday. When you left Veguita you gave me a pair of ceramic shoes so I could remember you—I’ll always remember you Margaret❤️
Go now to sing & dance before the Lord.
Our deepest sympathy Gilfred, Lupe & Sisto😭

“ My deepest heartfelt condolences to Gilfred, Cisto and Lupe on the loss of your loved one, beloved wife, mother and grandmother! I can still see her and your Dad (Gilfred) sitting at the altar at San Ignacio Church at Martinez Town on their wedding day and she was joyfully singing along with all the church hymns and I thought she would get up to dance. I've never seen a happier bride. May God bless her beautiful soul, May she fly high on Angel's wings and May she sing glory to God the most high in her new Heavenly home.
