“ Aunt Delia was a good lady, she was so much fun! I met her through my relationship with Leroy Moya, Domi's son. I met the family in 1975 and they treated me like one of their own. Auntie Delia was only in her mid thirties then and we became very close, she loved family parties and was so close to her family, and Anthony and Angela were the love of her life! She was so excited for Leroy and I when Carly and Jesi and Candice were born and held me when our son Felix Gilbert died in 1992. That meant so much!
Grandma Isadora and Bam and Auntie Delia and Auntie Theresa and Auntie Erlinda taught me so much, especially to cook the old way, Leroy was very, very thankful for that!!
I will miss her so much, the family has lost so many in a short time, Auntie Lucy an amazing lady and I just heard that Uncle Solo passed away. My heart and prayers go to everyone, Joe, Joyce and Jane and all the grandkids like Todd and Natalie, Little Gilbert, Dwayne, Tammy, Kelly and Julie and all the rest of this wonderful family!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
These amazing women always made me feel like I belonged and was welcome, was family! Thank you Auntie, I love you and will miss you!
