“ Maria, oh how I miss you my beautiful friend. I noticed you were not at your regular chair at the treatment center. I called your number in case you had changed chairs, but you didn't answer. So I called you at home that evening and no answer. I tried almost every day after and I was starting to get worried. When I read your obituary you had already been gone a week, I am heartbroken. I will miss seeing you as you enter the clinic, with your beautiful dark hair and the beautiful sent if your favorite perfume. Thank you for the little gifts and snacks we shared and for your friendship. God bless you, I miss you Maria.
