“ Oh my. Given the current circumstances of the country during this Covid-19 crises, I decided to check in on my old UNM friend, Marlene. We'd been exchanging email/texts on an irregular (2-5x per year) basis for the last 5 yrs or so, having somewhat reconnected after 40 years.
For some reason, I googled before writing...and this is what I found. My last message from her was April of 2019. She was filled with vigor and anxious to edit chapters in her latest tome.
This saddens me no end.
Condolences to all who knew her. I'm sure none of you knew me, but for three years at UNM we were very, very good friends (amigos, she'd say).
We disagreed, at the end, on much, including religion.
I hope you were right, Marlene..
