“ I vividly remember sleepovers at Aunt Mary Jane and Uncle Lencho's house with Edwina. I remember being so excited that we would be in the city and that Edwina had her own room. We'd always have a sit down dinner, and we'd walk to a nearby park to play. We usually stopped to get a breakfast treat on the way home. I always felt like I had been on an adventure. Thank you for those special times together, Aunt Mary Jane. Love, Leona Zamora
