“ Aragon Family,

My sincere condolences on the passing of Max. He and I were childhood friends and lived on South Tenth Street. There was only one Max! The passing of such wonderful friend makes a catch in one's breath. I am confident he was prepared for peace knowing that through death one is fully made whole. In keeping with his Catholic faith, he now rests in the hands of the Lord. May he rest in peace. May time bring solace to your grieving hearts.

I also submit condolences on behalf of my wife Sue and our family.

“ Oh my, I am so sorry to here about this wonderful man Max. He has been in so many of our lives growing up in Belen. One of the kindest and precious man you would ever want to meet. His beautiful wife Mary, they were so beautiful together and complemented each other in the best way. Always with a smile, always asked how you were doing, really a precious person inside and out. My condolences go out to you children and grandchildren how bless you are to have had such a wonderful Dad and Grandfather. May he rest with the Holy Family, and all the angels and saints in heaven.
