“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It's difficult to lose a loved one in death especially at such a young age. Please know that God is not the cause of this sadness. But He WILL soon fix it. Soon He will fulfill the promise made to us in John 5:28&29, and Revelation 21:3&4. I sincerely hope you find comfort in these scriptures about our future here in Earth...Jw.org

“ I was the summer lunch lady at Timan park years ago, Max and Alyssa would always come every weekday for the lunches. Each day they would get seconds and Max would always get his and then ask for seconds for Alyssa. A few years later I saw him again at the Boys Ranch. Still always smiling. Not to long ago I saw him at Smiths as a courtesy clerk. He was working hard. The little time I did get to know him was memorable. He was a very kind and considerate young man. God got a wonderful angel that day.
