“ Dear Dommie, Diana, David, Leroy, Jacqueline, our sincere and heartfelt condolences! It is unfortunate that sometimes it is not until later in life that we sit down and reflect about our lives and what got us from the beginning to the place we are in NOW. My main focus in life has been, “It is not where you begin but where you end.” There were many influences throughout my life, with touch points from many who affected me in positive ways, most especially your family. I spent my high school senior year working for your Mom in the Taco House. For me, your Mom and Dad were those touch points and influences, especially your Mom whom I got to know quite well while working for her in the Taco House. I spent many hours talking with your Mom who always offered advice and direction on a number of life experiences and concerns that a teenager has to deal with. I am so thankful to have experienced the loving relationship your Mom and Dad had with each other and with you. On two occasions, they invited me to vacation with them at Blue Waters and Elephant Butte. As you know, Bert and I became very, very good friends, getting to learn and experience life lessons along the way. I was thankful to have seen Dommie, Michael and Leroy at your one of your Aunt's funeral service a year or two ago. We had a great conversation and so, so great to see them. God bless Michael, knowing he is is now in heaven. God bless you Moya family! Love, Reggie and Linda Trujillo, Fairfax Station, Virginia
