“ I'm so sorry for your loss. There is nothing that can prepare a person for the feelings of losing a family member.

The Bible describes Jehovah as a God of all comfort, at 2 Corinthians chapter 1 and verses 3-4. One scripture that has brought so many people comfort is Revelation chapter 21 and verses 3-5 because that describes a promise from God that is specifically touching to anyone who has experienced the pain of losing someone. Again, my deepest sympathies for your loss.

“ To the Hammer family I was sad when my mom told me she went to see your mom yesterday I remember her as always so kind and at every funeral helping in the kitchen going to her house for Halloween to get the best treats ever ! But mostly I remember after not seeing the Hammers (Chuck and Mildred) for many years sitting with my mom in the living room holding her hand after they heard my pops (Fermin) had passed and I remember them saying we had to come see Elfa . My parents always had wonderful things to say about her and her loving husband . My condolences and your beautiful mom will always be known as a pillar of our community ❤️

“ What do you say about a dear friend who walked with you thru all your struggles and all your joys in a growing, changing community? Mildred was there when Ellena was born, when we opened our store, when we built our house, when Miguel was born--she knew my family and loved me & them unconditionally. Never judging--always supportive--she was there! I will forever be grateful for her friendship. Mildred & Chuck would arrive every time someone was sick at our house with a meal in hand: homemade rolls, a meatloaf, etc. Christmas, birthdays--always! Even this Christmas when already she wasn't well, she brought Miguel his popcorn balls! Rest in Peace sweet Mildred--may the angels welcome you in paradise with much love ❤️❤️
