“ I am sorry for your loss. The passing of someone you love can be a very hard thing to cope with. Perhaps you can take comfort in the words Jesus spoke to the sister of Lazarus when he died. The Bible states at John 11:25, "Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" Please find hope in these words

“ Tim was my closest friend growing up. When I came along many of Nancy's kids had grown and were out of the house but that didn't mean her job was done. Nancy still had a houseful of children, their friends, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, siblings, and parents to care for and love. Even amongst the chaos of people, Nancy always made me feel like the most special person in her home. She had an unbelievable capacity to love and that love was felt by everyone she touched.

The Lord does all things well. We pray and send you our prayers of sympathy. We feel her loss greatly but it is heavens joy. God made Mothers. I knew your Mother and Father because I know Patrick and what I have read here, The memory of your Mother to me will be of her leaning to watch for her family and friends, looking out the door or window anxious if any of you were late. Isaiah 66:13 As one whom His Mother comforteth; so will I comfort you; God will be a Mother to you. All our love and prayers to your family. T-Time
