“ Gosh there isn't enough room here to say all the great things about Nan. I remember everyone saying she was scary. Ha! She wasn't scary. She was hilarious! She taught me quite a bit about equine reproduction. She helped me get through a low point in my life by giving me a job. She truly cared and was kind. She was so smart. She was stubborn and feisty. I hope she knows how many people she touched and inspired. There will never be another like her. I feel truly blessed to have known her ❤️

“ Nan, my other mother. Oh how heaven opened up her arms to receive such a beautiful angel. Your barn was where I learned my work ethic, my customer service skills and how to clean a small properly. You taught me about life and how to gain the trust of a horse. You became my mentor, and were my "Other mother" and I was your "Snot nosed little brat". I love you forever and always. Until we meet again ❤️

“ *Heaven gained an Angel, the world lost a beautiful soul, loving wife, mom and grandma. I lost my best friend. As always, she put up a big fight, but God decid it was time to bring her to her eternal home, where she can ride and rope and sort sheep. Just watch the clouds move, and she is probably heavig fun moving sheep and other livestock between the pastures in Heaven
My deepest sympathy and much love,, Terry and Family*

“ I am so sorry to hear of Nan passing. I've never known a more hard working woman in my life. She touched so many during her time here. She was a go getter and I'm sure she's helping round up and training heavenly horses right now.
