“ May God bless Nicolae, and his family! There are points in our lives, that we cross paths with other people. If I am not mistaken, I believe, Mr Spilca and I met years ago..? My first memory, is a gas station near Interstate 25, at Coal Avenue..? I was moving out of the neighborhood, I had lived, and grown up in, as both, a child and young adult. A few years ago, I entered the Chevron on Eubank, near Lomas Blvd. I remembered a familiar face? We were always cordial with one another, but never talked in length, as I remember. My deepest sympathies to Mr Spilca's family for their lost. May God bless you all!

“ I live around the corner from one of Nicks stations.I became acquainted with Nick and Family first as a customer.After a few years I got to know Nick more personally as well as his brood.We were often in agreement when criticizing "Communism" and I understood the difficulty escaping such a situation.I always had a good time hangin' out with Nick.He was Generous to say the least and I will miss him as a comrade(thats a little joke)My sincere condolences to Nicks wonderful Family.Consider yourself lucky if you know the Spilca's.I have been.
