“ One of the best film and tv writers I have ever worked with his name will be prominent on several of our scripts and screenplays for our company. We were getting ready to meet for an editorial draft meeting to tighten up the script. Our pilot and series Modern Mafia will suffer without his story editing input. Miss you Nolan! -Anton Kozikowski

“ I met you for the first time at Pagan pride about 8 years ago. you were so friendly and enthusiastic I looked for you at every pagan and costuming event I went to and often found you and had great conversation. I loved when you came to one of my parties, you would bring some cool new video you made, or costume piece to show us. I am grateful to have seen you one last time, despite my hectic schedule. My best memory of you is WB '09, you leading up to it you were proudly showing the progress you were making on a truly gruesome vampire costume, then you won the Scariest Costume prize. I'm really gonna miss finding you and chatting you up at coming events. I really will miss you, my friend.

“ Nolan, I am so sorry that I didn't get to spend more time with you. You're an awesome guy taken from us too soon.

Crista Bergmann - October 06, 2014 at 07:32 AM

“ The first time we met you, Nolan, it was my and Joe's first Mabon. We were wandering through camp and happened across your site. You struck up a conversation with us and we ended up staying for hours, talking and drinking and talking some more. Every time we saw you after, we would sit and talk like we hadn't been apart at all. You will be sorely missed, my friend. I will miss seeing you in your usual camp site at Mabon, just a stone's throw away from the fire and overlooking the ritual grounds. I hope you're looking down on all of this and are greatly amused that so many people loved you. Go in peace, my friend.

“ you were one of my students, actors and most of all one of my greatest friends. You were so kind, witty and most of all would go out of your way for anyone who needed you and you stayed a kid your whole life. Its what I have tried to do as well. We were good friends Nolan, I will miss you dearly brother.

Shawn Darling - October 06, 2014 at 01:55 AM

“ So many fun times shared. Comic-Cons, conversations at the clubs, working on video projects, private parties. You were a fantastic person and friend. Miss you and see you on the other side!
