“ My dear cousin Patrick has gone to be with His Beloved Savior. A time of sweet glory and tender hearts as so many who dearly love him rejoice in his salvation and also weep in that he is not here with everyone to joke, sing, play and just enjoy the blessed life so many loved sharing with him. My Uncle Patricio and Auntie Beatrice, my Padrino and Madrina, Patrick and all the family, such precious examples of family and love and especially great faith and devotion to God and Messiah His Son. May the Holy Spirit sweetly bless everyone in this most tender time with comfort from above and peace that surpasses all understanding during this time and always. Thank You Lord our God, in our blessed Savior we pray, amein and amein. Glory, . . . to Glory . (cousin Roseann Gomez)

“ My deepest condolences for your loss of Pat. I understand this heartache and will be praying for each of you. Know that God is carrying you, the Holy Spirit is collecting your tears and Jesus understands your heartache. Ms Milford told me when my dad died that she who loves much hurts much. Give yourself time to mourn. Pat was a great man of God and will be missed. He heard " Well done Good and Faithful servant ".

“ Angie, Leon, Lori, Keith (my brother) and Daniel, I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of my close primo! So close in fact that he and I shared the 2nd most DNA on Ancestry it had him listed as a 1st cousin when in fact we are once removed. I was honored and blessed to find out those results! I feel like a part of me went with him! May God send healing peace to all of you. No doubt my primo is basking in the glory! He was a faithful servant....All my love, Bernadette Baca-Torres

“ Dear family, I remember Patrick fondly, from our time having chorus with Mrs. Carbajal. So, so much fun! Patrick sang beautifully! Over the years when visiting ABQ II in September, we always took time to visit Hispanic Village. We saw Patrick playing on stage with our classmate Anthony Baca. Great times and great memories!!! God bless Patrick and family. ❤️ Reggie and Linda. From Virginia. Class of 1967 RIP. 🙏
