“ Dear Grampi,
I will never forget the days and nights spent hearing you sing Gabino Barrera or Águila Negra. It burns in my soul and always will. How much gusto you had with music and how you always called me “La Cantadora”. If it wasn’t for you I wouldn’t have my dad, and I definitely would not be here. Thank you for being in my life, thank you for raising one of the most amazing and talented man in my life. Thank you for showing my brother what it takes to grow a garden. And thank you for letting me hear someone sing because they simply just loved it. Thank you for being my grandpa. I will forever miss you.

Love,
Venny

“ Dear Grampi,

I cannot express the sadness I have not having you in this world, but then I think of the life you lived and the amount of wisdom and knowledge you gave me. The countless hours hauling hay with my dad and I, the various projects we did together, the hours we spent caring for your beloved garden. It brings me a smile to think of all you shared with me. You taught me things that at the time were simple, but later realized they were deep in meaning and life-lasting. Taught me how to live off the land, to be able to hunt and ways to survive. Your simple words of wisdom, such as, “A man needs to work, and work hard, you cannot stop, we were meant to do something in life.” Will forever resonate in my life. You made me strong, you showed me how to grow and cultivate things in life. You will be missed greatly gramps, but I am grateful for all the memories you gave me. Thank you for being my Grampi.

Love,

Jonathan Aragon

“ Who is my brother?

"Qune", "Quene", "Junior", "Pedro", or "Pedro Jr". Who had the honor of being named after our father. My fondest memory of him that he was truly my father figure. He was always there to help our family. My brother worked hard in difficult jobs so that he could provide for his immediate and extended family. Thus, when things got a little difficult for me in life, I always remembered my brother "Quene", and said to myself, "...what I am facing is not as difficult as what my brother has done in the past or is doing right now..." Therefore, it was because of my brother that I was able to persevere. For this, brother, I will always be grateful and forever thank you for being my brother.

With love your brother,

Celedon

“ To my Dad,
We were always together, you and me, now what? I miss you so much, I love you, and I will never stop thinking about you. This is so hard for me because you were the best Dad in the world and you mean everything to me. I'm heartbroken because I can't imagine life without you. My love for you is never ever going to stop. My goal was to help you until the very end, but the pain was too much. Bye my dad, but never ever out of my heart. Take care of me, your my angel now. Love you forever and always,
Your Hita,
