

Priscilla M. Salazar

January 25, 2013

Our dear Mother, Grandmother and Sister Priscilla M. Salazar passed away on Thursday, January 24, 2013. Priscilla was born and raised in Albuquerque, NM but spent most of her life in Belen. She was married to Henry R. Salazar and they had four children. She spent most of her life in Belen raising her children and working in the Banking Industry. Priscilla retired from Bank of America in 1988. She loved to travel and did so extensively in this country and also abroad. Priscilla is survived by her son, Greg C. Salazar; grandsons, Sean Gabaldon and Chad Salazar; Landavazo and their children; and her 6 loving grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother, Albert and wife, Terri; sisters, Mary Villa, Margaret Thompson, husband Clyde and Marie Seymour; brother-in-law, John P. Salazar and wife, Terri, sisters-in-law, Tina Yslas and husband, Mucio and Louise Sanchez and several nieces and nephews. Priscilla leaves behind a legacy of faith, strength, love and courage. She was cultured and diverse in her activities. Which included volunteering as a curator at the museum of arts and history in Old Town, Albuquerque, NM. The family feels blessed and has many happy memories for all of the years that they had Priscilla in their lives. Romero Funeral Home will be in charge of private services.
