“ Judy, Lou, Michael & Stella your mom was such a wonderfully lovable person! I admired her so much. She was the last of our Vallejos family. She would always tell me she wanted me to do the readings for her funeral, I was thinking that it was still a long ways off. I'm a Spanish 8:00 am lecturer, she really appreciated that. Rest assured that she is in heaven with the rest of her family. May Our Lord bless and keep all of you safe. ”

“ My deepest condolences to Michael, Judy, Lou, and Stella. I will always remember the excellent green chile cheeseburgers that Priscilla cooked when I attended the rodeos and ropings at their home. I also appreciate her letting us create so much dust while Michael and I practiced our roping.

“ For many years, both Priscilla and her father, Julian were Foster Grandparents. As such, their role was to provide individual love, attention and understanding to special children. Priscilla did this because she was an individual with a natural compassion and a strong desire to help those less fortunate.

*Our condolences to the Silva Family during this time of loss.
