“ To the love that was exchanged by Ray others during his life. May the healing begin and the truth be held tight. God needed his solider to be by his side. We don't understand and we may never understand. God gave us memories to hold for the rest of our life.

“ Cynthia and I got to know Ray when he and Elyse came to visit us this last Memorial Day weekend. He was a very nice young man; gentle, kind, very dapper in his own way. He loved Elyse dearly. And still very sad about his mom. He had a great time jetskiing on Lake Texoma. And he was a connoisseur of junk food! We will miss not getting to know him better. Our condolences to his family for this great loss.
