“ Who would have predicted that a life time friendship would be formed not only with Gina, Leonard, Boni and myself, but formed between our children. Rosedale Circle will always be the neighborhood that this bond was nurtured. The memories of that time in our lives was recently talked about with Gina, Leonard, Paula, Richard, Paul and myself during a recently visit with Gina and Leonard. What it made me realize was that the bond of friendship will live long after all of us journey to heaven. Gina, I pray you rest in peace and to Leonard and the kids, when you find yourself missing your Mom look to your kids, nieces, and nephews and you will see your mom again.

*With our deepest sympathy

“ Leonard & Family,

The sweetest harp-player in Heaven has called Regina to that place where she earned a right to live in that glorious mystery that awaits all. In keeping with her faith, her span in Heaven will measure a glory only known to God. As is said, such glory has no end. Who is to know how God must be feeling as he looks over your loss for he also deals with his caring heart! May remembrance of the happiness all of you enjoyed with Regina bring solace to your hearts.

I submit sincere condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself.

“ Where do I start. I am so sad, but I am also so happy for my dear friend Gina. She is and always has been so special to me. This last year when I've been tested in my journey with cancer, Gina was there for me with her kindness and most of all her prayers. I love Gina and I always will. I never knew Gina had been ill. I only hope that all the prayers I have been saying uplifted her as well. I pray that Gina knew I was in remission from my cancer. Our Dear Lord knows everything and I am sure he made sure Gina knew. I loved to see her and Leonard. They were so loving and it would make me smile when she would call him "Chico". Leonard my dear friend, Thank you for always being so kind to me and for all that you do for your family and of course your love for Gina. Gina so STRONG, SMART, BEAUTIFUL inside and out. To all the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren you have a special Saint in Heaven, who will always be watching over you. Love you all.

“ Leonard and family, Lloyd and I feel so very lucky to have known Regina as our friend. She leaves a special place in our hearts. She always went out of her way to ask for Lloyd when she knew of his heart surgery and he was so touched by that. I felt when I saw her as my patient, I was the one cared for because she was always so pleasant and so endearing to me. We feel blessed to have known your lovely Regina. God Bless you all. She will be missed. Lloyd & Lucille Sais
