

Reynaldo C. Carrillo

August 30, 1926 - March 22, 2020

1926-2020

Reynaldo C. Carrillo was called by the Lord on March 22, 2020, at the age of 93. He was preceded by his loving and caring wife, Sarah S. Carrillo and eight siblings before him. Reynaldo was born on August 30, 1926 in Veguita, NM to Rafael and Juanita Carrillo. He was an accomplished, hard-working husband and father. Reynaldo was known as a “giant pillar” in Veguita. He worked long hours on his enormous farm and ranch for 72 years, harvesting fields of alfalfa, oats, wheat, grass, barley, cotton and onions. Reynaldo was predominantly remembered for his flavorful red and green chile, which was sold at his produce stand. He enjoyed the company of his friends and family. Reynaldo was known for his quick wit, his infectious jokes and his leadership. He is survived by his brother, Filimon Carrillo (Esther); his loving children: JoAnn Jaramillo (Alejandro), Elizabeth Jaramillo (Alonzo), Frances Conroy (Del), Beverly Campbell (Bobby), Ralph (fiancé Teresa), David (Cathy) and Allen (girlfriend Natasha), 17 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild. Pallbearers will be Alejandro and Yvonne Jaramillo, David Conroy, Tyler Campbell, Jesse and Marcus Carrillo.

Due to the unfortunate situation of the COVID-19 we are sadly informing family and friends, Public Viewing, Rosary, Final Visitation and Mass Service will not take place at this time.

A public memorial service will be held later when the COVID-19 regulations are lifted. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. The Carrillo Family and Romero Funeral Home.

“ I don't know why I haven't posted publicly until now about my father in law Reyno... He was such an awesome, kind, patient, and funny man. When I met Allan I fell in love. Then I met Reyno and he just accepted me into his family right away. And then the rest of the family, well let's just say they are all beautiful and loving people. The only one I never met was Sarah. I know I would have loved her. Reyno lives on in his family, in Veguita, and in the chile!!!

“ A great neighbor for so many years, friend, more like family to mine...I grew up with your girls & though we lost touch you were always there to remind me with your stories about where I came from. You never forgot my family. You will be missed in our Veguita community. Anyone who grew up in in the area & knew Reynaldo, I am sure has a story to tell. Lots of chile, or farming stories...Rest in Peace Reynaldo... You are finally reunited with you lovely wife Sarah. May you rest in peace...Thank you for always being such a good person, friend & neighbor. Bernadette Lopez Moya(Veguita)

“ We, Gilbert and Lucy, loved Reyno. We always repeat his favorite joke: "Que te gustan las papas de borrega?" Of course it confuses most, but he'd get a kick out of translating: "Do you like potato sheeps"? He was a wonderful person. May his soul rest in peace, next to his most lovely Sarah. The Baca's.
