“ A Letter from your big bro Jack Aaron

Hey sis, It's me I don't really know what to say right now because this is the hardest thing I have ever had to go through. The thought of losing you is something I choose not to accept in my reality right now. All the times we used to talk about being with Dad well got damn it you got to go first. This is not fair but I know dad and you are watching over mom and I now. You are my best friend and my other better half and someone I wish I would of spent a lot more time with. I'm so sorry I have not been here for you but I promise I will carry on all of our memories. I am going to miss my big bear hug from you. When I get home I promise you I will fix your truck like I told you I would do with you. I will cherish that truck and keep it forever. Please watch over mom and me. I love you always and forever. Please wait for me I will see you again.

Here is a promise I give to you

"It is mine to avenge; I will repay. In due time their foot will slip; their day of disaster is near and their doom rushes upon them."

Deuteronomy 32:35

“ Roddy you were like the little sister I never had. You dated my brother forever it seems. I wish we could've stayed close like we were when you were with John. I will never forget all the good times. I'm going to miss you girl. I'll see you again soon though. I'm so sorry this happened to you. You didn't deserve it. I hope your family will get justice. You deserve that much. I love you always girl.

“ Dude.... It's still crazy to think you are gone. We lost touch since High School, and it saddens me to think of. I still remember that time I "rescued" a gecko from the pet shop and gave it to you as a birthday present lol you had him for like a week before you lost him!! I couldn't believe you managed to lose him lol.. even though we lost touch, the news of your passing hit me hard. I'm going to miss you Roddy. At least now you don't have to deal with anyone's sh anymore. You are finally at peace, able to party it up without any worry or stress. You will be missed. RIP. My thoughts are with your family.

“Rowdy, I wish I could have hired you to work with me, had the business not closed down. You told me about your passion for animals, and I regret that I never got the chance to show you veterinary medicine. You would have been a rock star, literally every one can agree, your heart is one of the rare large (and priceless) gems that can grace the world. A woman’s heart that’s so big, she had a will to learn saving animals. I had always told myself, “one day, when I’m the manager of another vet clinic, this girl more than deserves a chance!” I’m sad and heartbroken, I never got the chance to make that true. Just know Rodlyn, I got your sis, and your beautiful niece, wherever this railroad of life takes them! You will never be forgotten Rowdy! Forever and always.
