“ I remember Ron as kind and thoughtful. He was unselfish and put others needs ahead of his. My family experienced his kindness in all the fine cabinetry work and other things he did for us. We will always have fond memories of him.

“ Dear Friend, you will truly be missed, especially for me on laundry day on Sundays. I looked forward to seeing you ever Sunday to collect my coupons and give you eggs. You were very kind to always think of me to bring me fifty cents pieces that I collected. You are a very kind and compassionate person, you will be missed. ~
