“ ....When I moved back to Albuquerque, Ron was one of the first people I met, and we met doing something we both loved...playing trivia. From there we became good friends. He offered me counsel during some difficult times, valued opinions during others. As one of the founding members of the then "Motley crew" trivia group, his wit, humor, and sarcasm was truly appreciated by me. I will miss swapping war stories with him of our time in the Air Force, discussing current events, and just hanging out. I am going to miss you buddy.

*Ron,
The pattern is clear, visibility unlimited, you have your vector, have a good flight my friend.....*
