“ Joe was my father-in-law. I have never known a man so gracious and kind as this man. His love for his grandchildren was obvious even to strangers. He was one-of-a-kind gentleman who thought of others far above himself. He is greatly missed. His grandchildren talk about him everyday. Our 5 year old son says, Mom I don't cry when I think of Papa. I am happy because he is with Jesus, and I can't wait til I see him again. Such is the faith of a child.
