“ Danny, Margaret, & Val:
I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Sally was such a kind, sweet woman, always so full of life, never hesitating to engage in new adventures. She was so fun to be around and never failed to make everyone chuckle. She was always the life of the party, making us laugh and always having a good time. I'm sure heaven just livened up with her arrival. She will be missed. She is resting and no longer in pain. May God embrace you during this difficult time. Love all of you!

“ I am truly sad about the passing of a dear sweet woman. My mother was Annette Wright and worked for Joe and Sally when they had the ambulance service, as my sister Shawn wrote earlier. I will never forget the times we had get-togethers at their home and had so much fun. Sally was a great cook and she will never be forgotten along with Joe and her sweet daughter Priscilla, who lost her life so tragically. My mother loved them dearly and I know she will see Sally and Joe in heaven. My condolences to Danny and Margaret and everyone else in her family.

“ Aunt Sally was such a beautiful women. She was witty, smart and so very cute when you'd talk to her. Even though she wasn't really our Aunt Sally, we called her that from day one. She will be greatly missed. Heaven did gain a wonderful Angel. Rest in peace Aunt Sally. We loved you much.

“ Auntie Sally, I use your recipe for biscochitos every Christmas Holiday. Daddy loved them. I think he really liked that they were from your recipe. Your cookies always created a round of happy memory sharing.

We're going to continue to bake your delicious cookies and talk about how everything you made was so tasty. We will hold you in our hearts and remember how joyous you were and how much we enjoyed you.

I'm sorry you had to go, but I'm glad you can feel better now.

Lots of Love,
Patti

A lovely woman, outstanding mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother. Sally, you left your mark on those who loved you. Your kindness, love, and humor will live on in those you leave behind. Fly with the angels, we all know that you are with Joe and Prill....
