“ Aunt Sandy was known to nieces and nephews as the one with high energy, speaking her mind, fiercely independent, but protective of all in the family. Her sense of fun, and funny things was always known to everyone and her hardy laugh will be a great and fond memory of her. I remember her tireless work as a nurse, fighting to keep another's life if she could and speaking out to the doctors which was a new thing a generation ago. She was always kind to us (other kids) allowing us to stay the day or sometimes overnight which was a special treat. We have photos of all the families in their garage, we barely fit, good thing we were kids at the time!! With her children came a new devotion and I know she did everything she could for you; Mark, Tim, and Victoria. Her love will never end, keep her memory alive in each of you as she has already made a true lasting impression on all of us. Love you all, Marge
