“ Sato, You are at peace brother. Since you first arrived at St. Marys in the early 50s you have been a good friend. You took care of your Grandmother, your Father and Mother as best you could. The good memories will always be with us. Six strings down.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. There is a Bible verse at Psalms 34 verse 18 that says Jehovah God is near to those who are broken-hearted. He knows your pain better than anyone, and is described as the hearer of prayer. May God help you in this very difficult time.

“ My prayers are with all of the children and their families of Uncle Sato. My mom and dad picked him to be my Godfather. He would call me mostly at Christmas just to let me know he was thinking of me. RIP UNCLE SATO. Love always your niece and your God daughter that is what I was to you. Adelle, Eddie and Nickolas Herrington and Jonathan. Daughter of Livy and Benita Montano.
