“ My deepest sympathies to Senaida’s many family members and friends. I love Senaida a lot. She was so kindhearted. She and I were in the Legion of Mary together. One time after praying in someone’s home we left and took a wrong road. We ended up four wheeling in a dry arroyo. We were laughing so hard because we felt like teenagers. In fact she wanted me to pick her up in my husband’s truck, she may have wanted to go four wheeling again. She was an excellent listener and gave straight forward advice which always made me feel better. Her quesadillas were delicious! I miss her. Her hugs were very loving and her eyes very caring and her words very wise as well as funny. I will never stop loving her.
Con amor, Cristina

“ The first time we met, you showed me unconditional love. You hugged me like you had known me for years, kissed my cheek, and told me how beautiful I was. I wasn't use to this because my family isn't intimate like that, but you brought together a family that loved unconditionally. Every family gathering was full of laughter and love, all of which radiated from you and touched every single person there. Thank you for sharing this with me. While we only spent short amounts of time together, you changed my life. I will miss you more than words will ever be able to express, but I will help your memory live on by showing the love you showed me to others. Rest in peace, Nana. I love you.
