“ I am just shocked at Mr. Trujillos sudden passing. I missed his garden this year. I thought well after the filming he will grow it again next year. I just saw him out in his yard a few day's ago. My deepest sympathy to all his beloved family. He was humble, kind and generous with his veggies. So sad. Blessings to all. Another Angel gone to paradise.

Thank you . My dad grew a lovely garden and blessed everybody who showed up with melons, cucumbers, squash and corn. He was maybe not so generous with the chile :)

“ Rudy & Ingrid Abeyta, wish to express their sincere sympathy to Angelina and all the Trujillo family at the passing of Sesario, our beloved Cousin. Sesario, was always a joy to be around. He always thought of others first and was a dedicated family man. He loved God, family and country and was not afraid to let others know this. May God bless Sesario and console his family at this difficult time.

“ Dear Trujillo Family,

Please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss. We remember at one of Shannon's birthday parties in Albuquerque the kindness that Sesario showed to our handicapped son, RJ, by talking to him and interacting with him even though he had never met our son before. We have never forgotten that and will always be grateful to Sesario for that.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
