“ Romero Family:

I am so sorry to hear of Sharon's passing, so much heartache for your family as of late. Your Mom will welcome her into paradise with our Lord, may they find peace together. May each of you find peace as you share the wonderful memories you have of both of them.

Know that each of you are being thought of with love and many Blessings going your way!!

Take care of each other, that his what your Mom would want.

Love, Paul T. Luna

Thankyou Paul. If only it were that easy. Help each other is just a joke. You never know how greedy people are in your family are until somebody dies, especially the ones that never helped with anything. They are the worst. Say hi to your mom. Ask her if she remembers Martha that worked with Wally at the Training School.

It is never easy to lose our loved ones, especially in your family's case, so much loss, so close together! Be strong Martha, you have your Mom and your best friend watching over you!! You also have the prayers of so many of us, we want each of you to find peace. We can't change other people, we can only take care of ourselves. I hope you are taking care of yourself, grief is never easy to resolve, don't thing we ever resolve it, we learn to live with it! Find your peace my friend, find it for you!!! Paul.

“ Martha, siblings & nieces & nephews,

Our deepest condolences to you all during this time of sadness. I am so glad I spoke to Sharon several times in 2021. She was still full of excitement. She will never be forgotten, she was my classmate and she was a lot of fun. Continue to pray for us here on this earth. RIP Sharon

Awe, thankyou Yvonne. Sharon really liked you a lot. As a matter of fact, we were just talking about you a few days before she died. We both didn't make it to my mom's funeral cuz we stayed up until 5:00 that morning. I broke my femur at the begining of september, and i still can't walk on it. She was up all night banging stuff around in her room and she kept me up. She had just found out that her cancer had come back. I'm still in shock that she left me. They both did. I miss my best friend Sharon so much. WE fought every day, but we loved each other very much. I'm also mad at her cuz she left me!

Thankyou Josie and Juan. My mom and Sharon died 21 days apart. My mom was so sick, and we knew her time was close, but Sharon had just found out her cancer had come back the day before my mom's funeral. She went quick. I miss them both, but Sharon was my best friend and as everybody knows, "my partner in crime." lol. Thankyou for thinking of us.

Thank you Carol, one of my oldest and dearest friends. It has been more than a difficult time. Sharon was not only my sister, but my best friend. We'd fight every day, but ten minutes later, we were best friends. We both took care of my mom, and thank God gave her enough time to see her all the way through. Sharon always said that she would go when my mom went. 21 days apart. Thankyou Carol.

“ Our deepest condolences to the Romero extended Family in Sharon's passing. It has been several decades since I had seen Sharon. But I will never forget her vibrant personality and great sense of humor. We were all young back in the 1980's having a fun time and trying to figure what life was all about. I will cherish our friendship forever.
