“ I'm writing this for my mother, and also for myself. My mom is a regular shopper at Smith's and she frequently bought money orders at the customer service desk, and that's how she knew Stan. I kind of knew him, too, and we both thought he was a really nice guy. He always greeted my mom by name, and would talk to her for a minute even if it was busy. He's going to be missed.

Stanley I remember so well when you, David and my Mom worked together at the Blue Ribbon supermarket. You guys had so much fun and laughed and brought joy to that store. I remember her telling me that she was at the cash register checking out a customer on day when she felt something bounce off of the top of her head. She looked up and saw you and David huddled and quietly laughing. When she was done with the customer she looked around and found the cherry you has tossed at her from the produce section. You knew she couldn't react when the customer was there but I have a feeling you heard about it later. So many stories and so many memories. Tell her hi when you get up there. Sorry to see you leave so soon.

“ Stan the Man! I an shocked and saddened by your passing. You were the kindness of "all" souls. Your obituary defines you perfectly, "You were a fixture." A fixture in so many people's,lives, including mine. Ralph Waldo Emerson writes, "Don't follow where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." Stan, you have left a trail. A trail of God loving man, whose commitment to his faith, family, friends, profession and community, is one others should model. My Mom, your good friend, presided over many rosary services. When she concluded the prayer, she would read a poem entitled, "The Reason." The message being, there is a reason for every purpose, good or bad. As I learn and accept your passing, I pray for your sibilings, who have lost a loving brother. And as tragic as your passing, you were blessed with a beautiful death. To enter God's Kingdom with no physical pain or suffering, free from sin and acceptance of the Holy Spirit, the path you leave is as scripture reads, "only few shall enter." I love you Stan. My life has been enriched with the blessing of your friendship. Rest my good friend, rest.

“ David, Benny, Ramona, and Ruben I am truly sorry for our loss, as Stanley was a remarkable person. He never had an unkind word for anyone, always happy and full of love. Stanley's love for his Family and Friends was so real and from the heart. “ Our heartfelt condolences to the Padilla family.

Stan and David came into our hearts and souls a little over a decade ago. Their friendship brought us to know the other family, always being treated as their own family. Touching lives in so many different ways Stan's genuine warmth, love and kindness dug deep. There is no better way to describe this beautiful person (Stan), than to say he lived his life with laughter, consideration, hope, positivity, warmth, religious and spiritual awareness epitomizing how all people should live. We are heartbroken, yet his spiritual presence will always remain in our hearts and minds. We were blessed to know Stan.

Blessings to all of you.

“ Hard to believe our cousin Stanley is gone. Just saw his brother Benny at Ricky Castillo's funeral. Benny was so excited that they were going to celebrate his birthday and retirement at the Downs that night. Our condolences to Benny, Ruben, David and Romona. The Mascarenas and Padilla's we were like brother's and sister's growing up. RIP cousin.

“ We have lost a beautiful person. This man was so special to everyone. He had nothing but good things to say to you and those around you. For several years after Thanksgiving I would take him a dozen tamales to the store to share with his brother. He was so grateful and always went out of his way to give me a hug. May you rest in peace my friend. My prayers go out to the Padilla family .during this difficult time. Roberta C. Archuleta

“ I was talking to Stanley Friday at his work he was getting ready to retire in a week. I asked him what are you going to do, his reply I'm going to get up and watch let's make a deal price is right and watch soap's. He was so happy we laughed when he said they are remodeling the store and there's no hope for me to get remodeled. I have known Stanley 37 years a very dear friend. I met him through his sister Helen .
He loved his family and he just adored all his niece's and nephew's. He was so happy always. He often talked about his niece Sharon and how he adored her kids.
He said when my sister Helen died part of me died with her . I'm sure Helen was waiting for you in Heaven I pray that you are resting in peace my friend. To his surviving family my deepest condolences may God give you the strength to get you through this hard time.

“ I'm so sorry to the rest of Stanley's family. I remember going into Smith's, where he worked, & no matter what he was doing he always stopped to talk to me. If he was with someone he'd excuse himself & say "I gotta say hi to my cousin. "

My dear friend Stanley, you were such an inspiration to me, everytime I saw you, you always went out of your way to say hello, and compliment me for everything that I did for my daughter. You were so devoted to our God, and now you are there in heaven where you belong. Rest in peace my dear friend, you are a beautiful soul, rejoice in heaven my dear friend.

Stan, You were an angel here on earth. Now you have your wings , free to be happy and not worry about anything. Good by my friend.

As I was out of town for over a month, my heart was crushed as I heard the sad news of our friend Stanley. Stanley had the warmest heart to everyone he met. Always trying to help or assist everyone. I will miss going to Smith's and seeing him or hearing his voice on the PA system at work. David is my dear loving friend as they both were and will always be. God has surely received another GREAT angel in heaven and now he is our angel from the heavens as well. Love you Stanley and will see you again in the Heavens. God Bless all the PADILLA family and heart goes out to David and all the Padilla family. Love, Lisa Lopez-Lugo
