“ I remember my Aunt Theresa as a woman that was elegant as well as beautiful. She held her head high and walked with pride. She gave me advice that was so useful to me after the birth of my first daughter, I admired my Aunt, knowing that she is no longer here on this earth is a sadness in my heart. An emptiness I did not expect to have. I will always have the memories of her and my mom talking and talking and talking. They laughed alot too. They had a big love not only for eachother, but for their families. I will think of you , and remember you with love.

Lovingly,

“ May the Lord give you and your family courage and strength to keep you going through this tough time.
Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.
Aunt Theresa was Loved and will be remembered.
May God's love give you strength in your time of sorrow.
