Thomas Diego Sisneros (Tomas), age 33, a resident of Belen, NM, passed away on April 14, 2025. He is survived by his beautiful children, Eliseo and Aaliyah Sisneros and their mother Mariah; parents, Gabriel and Yvonne Sisneros; sister, Gabrielle Sisneros (Jerome); grandparents, Tony and Erlinda Lopez, Ernestina Sisneros; nephews, Joshua and Zachariah; and many loving uncles, aunts, and cousins. He is preceded in death by his great grandmother, Lucy Davilla Lopez; grandfather, Eliseo Sisneros; uncles Genaro, Leroy, Herman and Andrew Sisneros; cousin, John JR. Sisneros; and great uncle, Rudy Lopez. Tomas truly had the biggest heart. He was known for his deep compassion, boundless empathy, and gentle spirit. He left a lasting impact on every life he touched. No matter what life threw at him, Tomas's beautiful soul prevailed and always shined through. He had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and loved —whether they were family, friend, or stranger. His deeply rooted kindness was a true reflection of the faith he held so dearly. A gifted writer with the most elegant penmanship, Tomas had a rare ability to put the beauty of life, love, and faith into words. His love for the Bible and his desire to share God's word were central to who he was. He found peace and purpose in his faith, often preaching with a humble heart and unwavering conviction. He was able to find the good in everything and everyone. He cherished the moments he had as a father, his kids being his greatest treasure. When life allowed him to be present, he embraced fatherhood with deep love and pride. Those memories were filled with genuine joy and tender care. Tomas found happiness in life's simple pleasures — grilling for loved ones, exploring the great outdoors, and sitting around a campfire with laughter and stories. He will be remembered for the love he gave so freely, the words he shared so beautifully, and the warmth he carried in his heart. His spirit lives on in the lives he touched and the memories held dear.

“ Although I didn't know Tomas personally, He was a gift to your family and friends during his lifetime in this world. Although we know that death is part of life, We all know the absence of a loved one in our lives is difficult and will be missed by his loved ones and friends.

Tomas, your time here on earth was short but we are so thankful for our time with you. I will forever cherish all the memories we had as kids and I promise to share those stories with your beautiful kids. I am comforted knowing you aren't suffering anymore and thank God for his timing. I know you're in heaven writing a poem for my dad in your perfect penmanship.

“ There are no adequate words to express my regret. Although it had been many years since I had seen Tomas, his passing hurts my heart all the same. He was indeed a kind and compassionate soul. I'll also always remember his sensitivity. Although my time with Tomas was just 180 days, he was never far from my memory. Gabriel, Yvonne, and Gabby, please accept my deepest condolences for your unimaginable and immeasurable loss.

Fondly,

“ My deepest condolences and sympathy to both the Lopez and Sisneros Families. My greatest tribute honoring Thomas, was the mutual love and affection exemplified between father and children! They were always together; either holding hands, sitting on his lap or his carrying one or the other in his arms. Always smiles and laughter among the three! Beautiful camaraderie! Blessings and much love to all. Evangeline "Vangie" Duran
