“ Tillie and her sister Irene were my mother's neighbors. I always thought they were cousins, they were so close and adored each other's kids and grandkids like their own. Three amigas, strong in their faith and love who served God and their own families with grace and incredible, enduring love. I'm sorry I just saw Tillie had passed long after her funeral and I know she has taken a wonderful spot in Heaven with her loved ones, safe in the arms of Our Lord. My heartfelt condolences to her family members who will surely miss her presence until they meet again. Thank you Terri, for taking such good loving care of Tillie. You kept her safe and comforted after she lost Irene and she had a happy home life all the way to her departure. May God Bless you and all Tillie's family and may your memories sustain you. ”
