“ Sending prayers up for you and your family. I only knew your mama through your posts Julie, but she was so funny and full of life. I know that God blessed you two with a great friendship, in addition to a mother/daughter relationship and she will be missed by everyone whose life she touched. I know you and everyone else will hold her memory near.

“ My prayers are with her kids and their families, along with all of her other family members.

Valerie was like a mom to me and a grandma to my son, Toma's. I didn't know until the first day I took my son to her to babysit and that was was 36 years ago. She loved my son as if he was her own grandson.

I'd walk into her house and she would always say oh I'm so happy to see you and greet you with a hug. We would have our talks and I'd take her for groceries and whatever else she wanted to do. I was always a phone call away for her.

I know she is at peace and with her creator up in heaven and watching over each and everyone of us and smiling.

As she would always say:

GOD BLESS YOU AND I LOVE YOU
