

Vincent Pando

January 22, 2013

Vincent F. Pando, age 42, a resident of Los Lunas, NM passed away on Monday, January 21, 2013. He honorably served eight years in the United States Navy, serving in the Gulf War. This allowed him to travel the world and granted him many adventurous life experiences. He had a thriving career and was a pioneer in the cable industry while managing to raise two beautiful children as a single parent. He was a very proud father and loved his family dearly. He was preceded in death by his father, S.T. Frank Pando; grandparents, Antonio and Alacarita Pando and Jose and Vincenta Martinez; Godfather, Franklin Branch; and cousin, Gabriel Pando. Vincent is survived by his two children, Jack Pando and Seferina Pando; mother, Anna Pando; sister, Veronica Pando Dixon and husband, Phred; brother, Michael Pando and wife, Aislinn; nephews, Brian Pando, Marcus Pando and Matthew Pando. He is also survived by many loving aunts, uncles and cousins. All services will be held at San Clemente Catholic Church, on Friday, January 25, beginning with a visitation at 9:30 a.m. with a rosary to be recited at 10:00 a.m. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Interment will be held at San Antonio Cemetery in Mora, NM at a later date. Pallbearer will be Jack Pando. Honorary Pallbearers will be Art Garner, Ray Roybal and Glenn Trujillo. The family would like to thank Ambercare Hospice and the Raymond G. Murphy VA Hospital for the wonderful care they provided. We would also like to thank all our wonderful family and friends for all their love and support.
