“ Mrs. Carrejo was a kind and caring lady. She truly loved her family. I remember the Ina telling me how she would be the driver in her complex taking other seniors to church. May God Bless her and her wonderful family. Sending lots of love from Minnesota. ❤️🙏

My own Mother, Felicitas Landavazo de Gabaldon was born in Horse Springs and also her Aunt Lily Gabaldon. I'm sure that they knew your Mom. She sounds like My own beautiful Mom Felicitas, Feliz she also would cook and bake delicious meals and pastilitos that her grandchildren loved. Just everything was made with love and especially for others. She also was unbelievably wonderful. My condolences to your Family and friends. I know that she will be missed.

I will miss my aunt Viola, I spent many times throughout the years listening to all her wonderful stories about family and eating her delicious biscochitos and will always treasure them. She was good at everything she did and especially cooking. I loved her very much along with all my cousins who I am sending many blessings, love and prayers to for the loss of their beautiful mom.
