“ Eloisa Vigil, Joe & Dorothy Vigil & Family,

Virgil has left behind a rose in your loving hearts and those others who loved him. And, you will always know it was red by its fragrance. He shared his love and he will continue strumming your hearts for as long as you may live. How lovely it must be to know he embraced you! He who on his death bed embraces God, is at peace and awaits the end then to be comforted by His hands. Virgil is now your music and your angel!

Life is a well traveled road, straight as an arrow and God will be watching and supporting you. All praise is due to Him and his Will.

Please accept condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself. May time bring some comfort to your grieving hearts.

Your cousin.
