“ Mrs. Macko was my brothers grandmother. She was so nice to me when I visited. I only wish I would have known her more. From what I hear from my brother, Chris Hockman, and from her daughter, Linda Macko-Romero, she was a wonderful lady. My only regret is that Linda was not allowed to spend more time with her mother in her last days, as they were the best of friends.

We would also like to edit the obituary. Virginia May Macko and George Macko were very happily married for 48 years. They are happy together now, as they were in life.

“ So sorry to hear of Ginny's passing. A smart lady who enjoyed life while she could. I know her health in recent times has been a big problem, and her brave daughters did their best to make her comfortable. She is at peace now, and you all can have some too. Deepest sympathies to the daughters and family from the Auge family.
