“ My dad (Ermilo Carrillo) worked with Dennis at the Santa Fe Railway until my dad passed away in 1995. I remember as a little kid going to his house while my dad helped work on that Old Brown Ford pickup.

After I moved to Las Vegas I would try to get by and visit with Dennis or see him at my brothers Mantanza. He would always talk about the times my dad and him worked together how he missed him, I always liked that Dennis was always so sincere and great to sit around and talk to, especially if he shared some of his wine that he had made awhile back. Definitely salt of the earth man, my prayers to his family at this time.

“ This picture was taken at Lake Tahoe at Sunnyside resort back in 1996. Dennis and Helen attended my niece Tamara’s graduation. They loved their stay and loved the natural beauty of Lake Tahoe. We toured around the Lake for a couple of days. Emerald Bay, Crystal Bay, Carnelian Bay, Sand Harbor. It truly was a lasting memory for me..
