

William Carl Nolan

July 6, 2012

William Carl Nolan, born in Brownwood, TX in 1990 and a resident of Albuquerque and Bosque Farms, NM passed away on Tuesday, July 3, 2012. William graduated from Los Lunas~High School in 2008, where he had been active in theatre and video production. He was active in the ministries of First Baptist Church of Bosque Farms. An award-winning guitarist, William also enjoyed playing the banjo, mandolin, piano and harmonica. He was remarkable for his musicality, with a special gift for improvisation. William was a loyal son, brother and friend. He had an incredible memory- a quality he shared with his grandfather, Clyde Green. William studied English and history~at Eastern New Mexico University for three years, and was currently working as a care-giver and gardener to a dear couple in Peralta. He loved hiking in the New Mexico~and Colorado mountains, and reading and talking about books and ideas. William Nolan was deeply loved by people of all ages and interests. He was known for his~kindheartedness, ironic sense of humor, and for always being a courteous, gracious man with a strong sense of honor. We will see him again in the presence of our Lord, but until then his family and his community will miss him very much. William is survived by his parents, Annie and Carl Nolan and brother, James Nolan, all of Bosque Farms. A viewing will be held at the First Baptist Church of Bosque Farms on Saturday, July 7, at 10:00 a.m. with a Funeral Service at 11:00 a.m.
