“ Zinzie was a very dear friend of mine for many years. She is now with my husband and they are reminiscing about memories of our times together, which I cherish. We had a common bond in many ways including our love of cats. She will be greatly missed by me as well as many others.

“ My Aunt Zinzie was not really my Aunt....but all my life I called her that. She was a smart and independent woman, who traveled and loved to collect antiques. She loved cats, and has several in her life. My mom was her best friend since age 14. They met in Oak Park Illinois. She knew my father, and my great grandma, my grandma and my dad. I knew her mother, Mrs. Klein, who was very kind.

From birth on I spent many holidays with her. Sometimes we would go for Christmas to her apartment in Oak Park. My sister and I loved to go to her apartment. It was always interesting and fun. She loved us girls, and was so good to us. One year we went to the Wisconsin Dells with her. My Aunt Zinzie taught me to swim and to float. She was a lot of fun.

My Aunt Zinzie always did crossword puzzles so she had an extraordinary vocabulary. She kept up with all the news and politics, and was well informed in world politics. She also liked to read books on history, art and famous people. She shared many great stories. She gave me some cook books, in fact, most of hers. I enjoyed cooking for her. One Christmas she revealed that the fancy dessert I made, and was thrilled that I found it in her book.

I will remember her for her wonderful perfume, L'Air du Temps, her favorite, for her hearty laughter, her kindness to animals, and her wonderful heart. I will miss her always and consider her family, as does my sister.
